Hebrews 10:1-11

What the Law (with a capital “L”)
is incapable of doing:

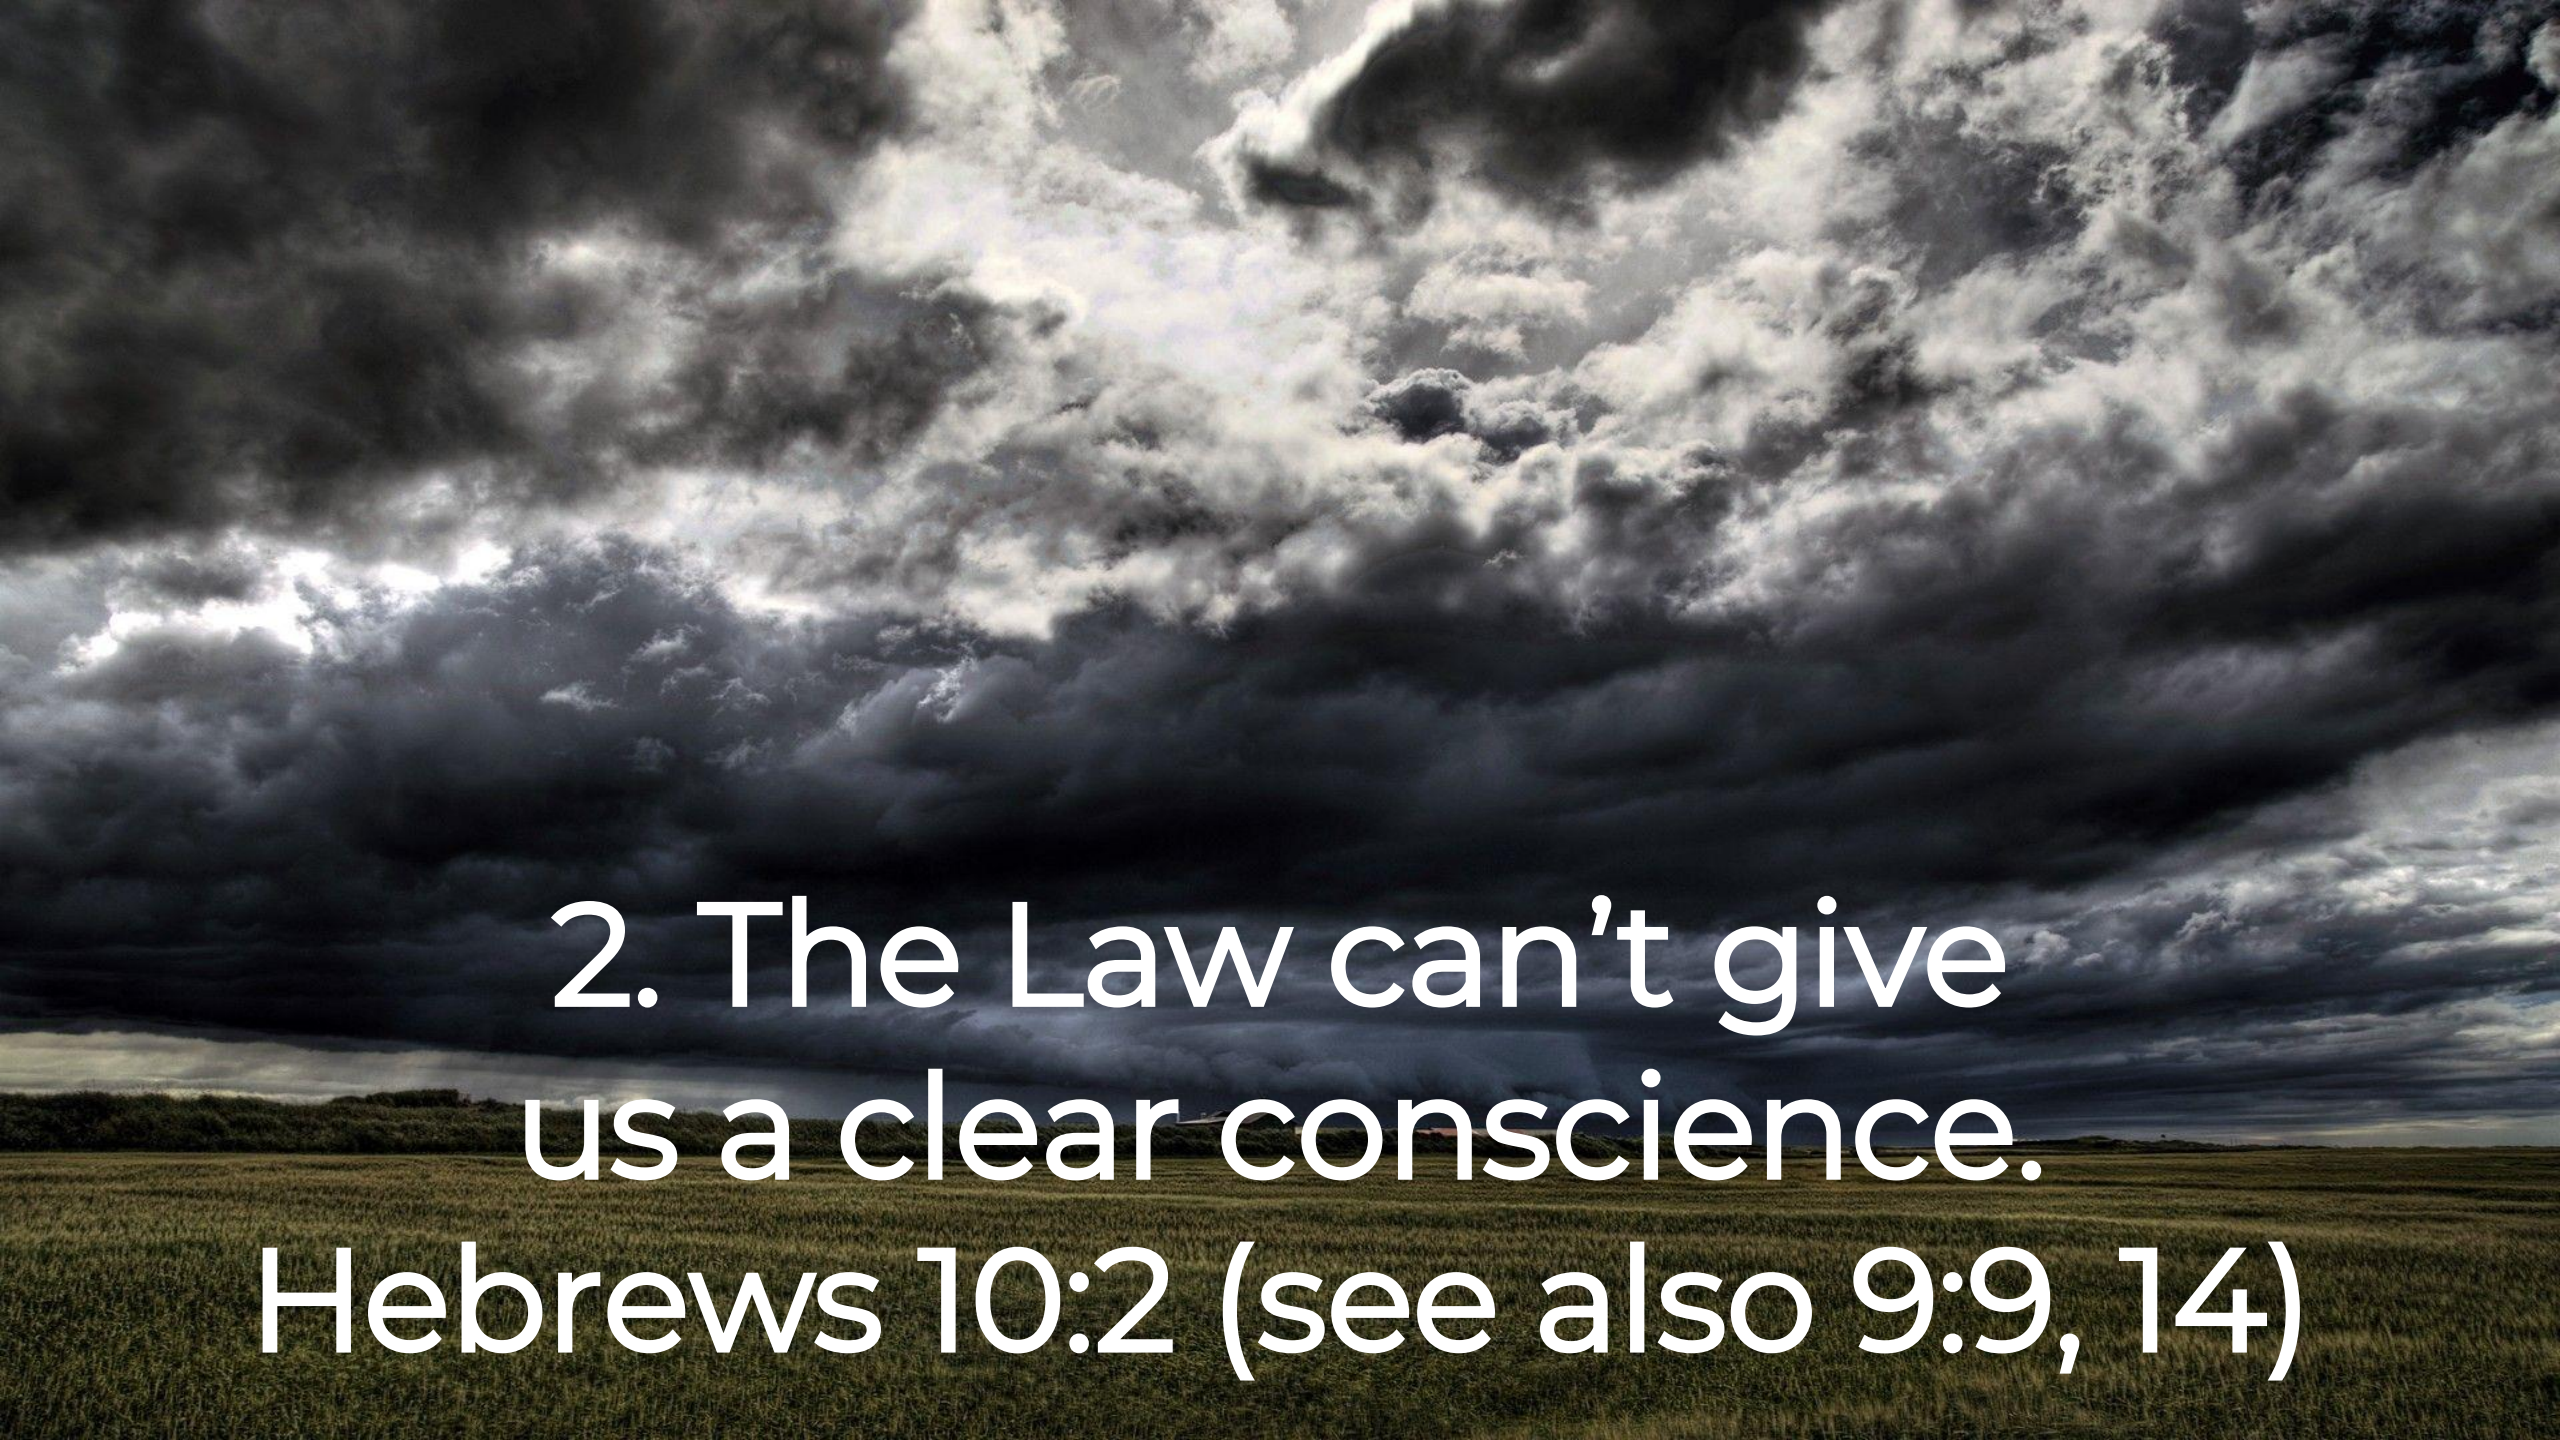

A dramatic landscape featuring a dark, stormy sky filled with heavy, grey clouds. The lower portion of the image shows a green field, possibly a meadow or farmland, under a low horizon line. The overall mood is somber and intense.

1. “The Law . . . can never . . . make perfect those who draw near.”

Hebrews 10:1

2. The Law can't give us a clear conscience.

Hebrews 10:2 (see also 9:9, 14)

3. Our effort to keep the Law
only makes us conscious of sin.
Hebrews 10:3

4. The Law couldn't
fix the problem of sin.
Hebrews 10:4

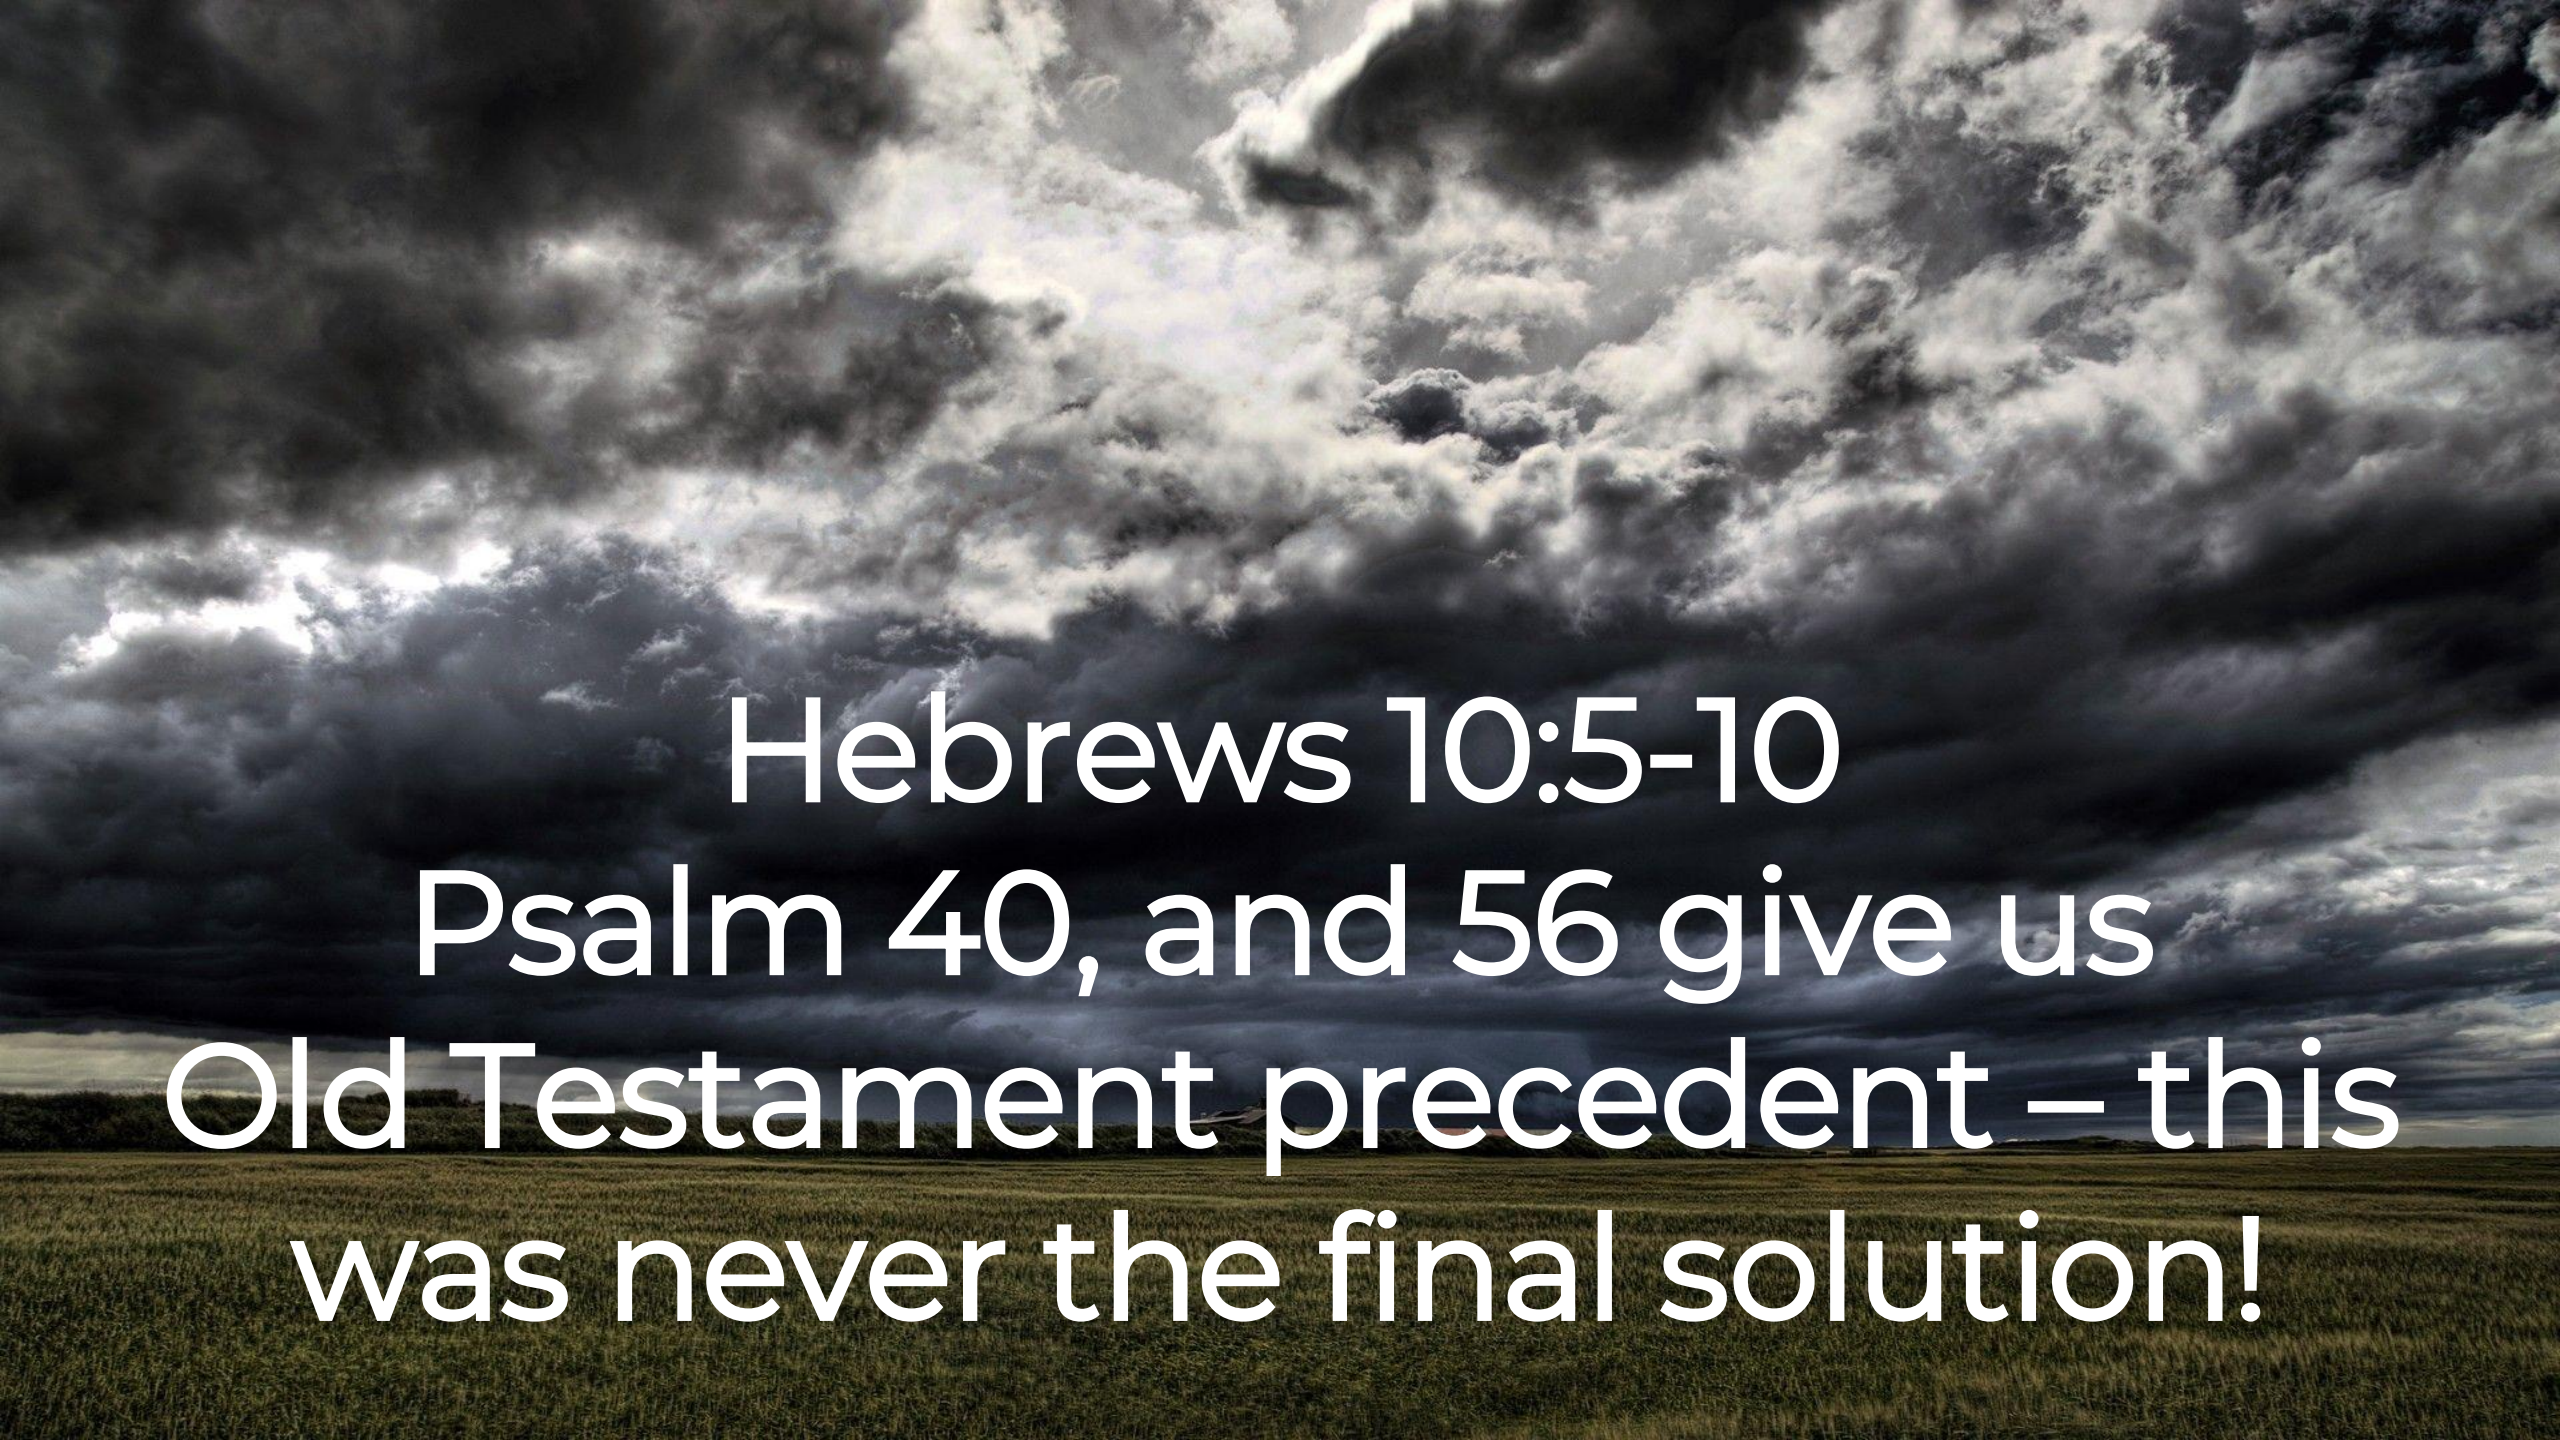

All the sacrifices could not
make us clean enough.

All the sacrifices could not
make us clean enough.

Jesus says, "let me wash you." Jn. 13

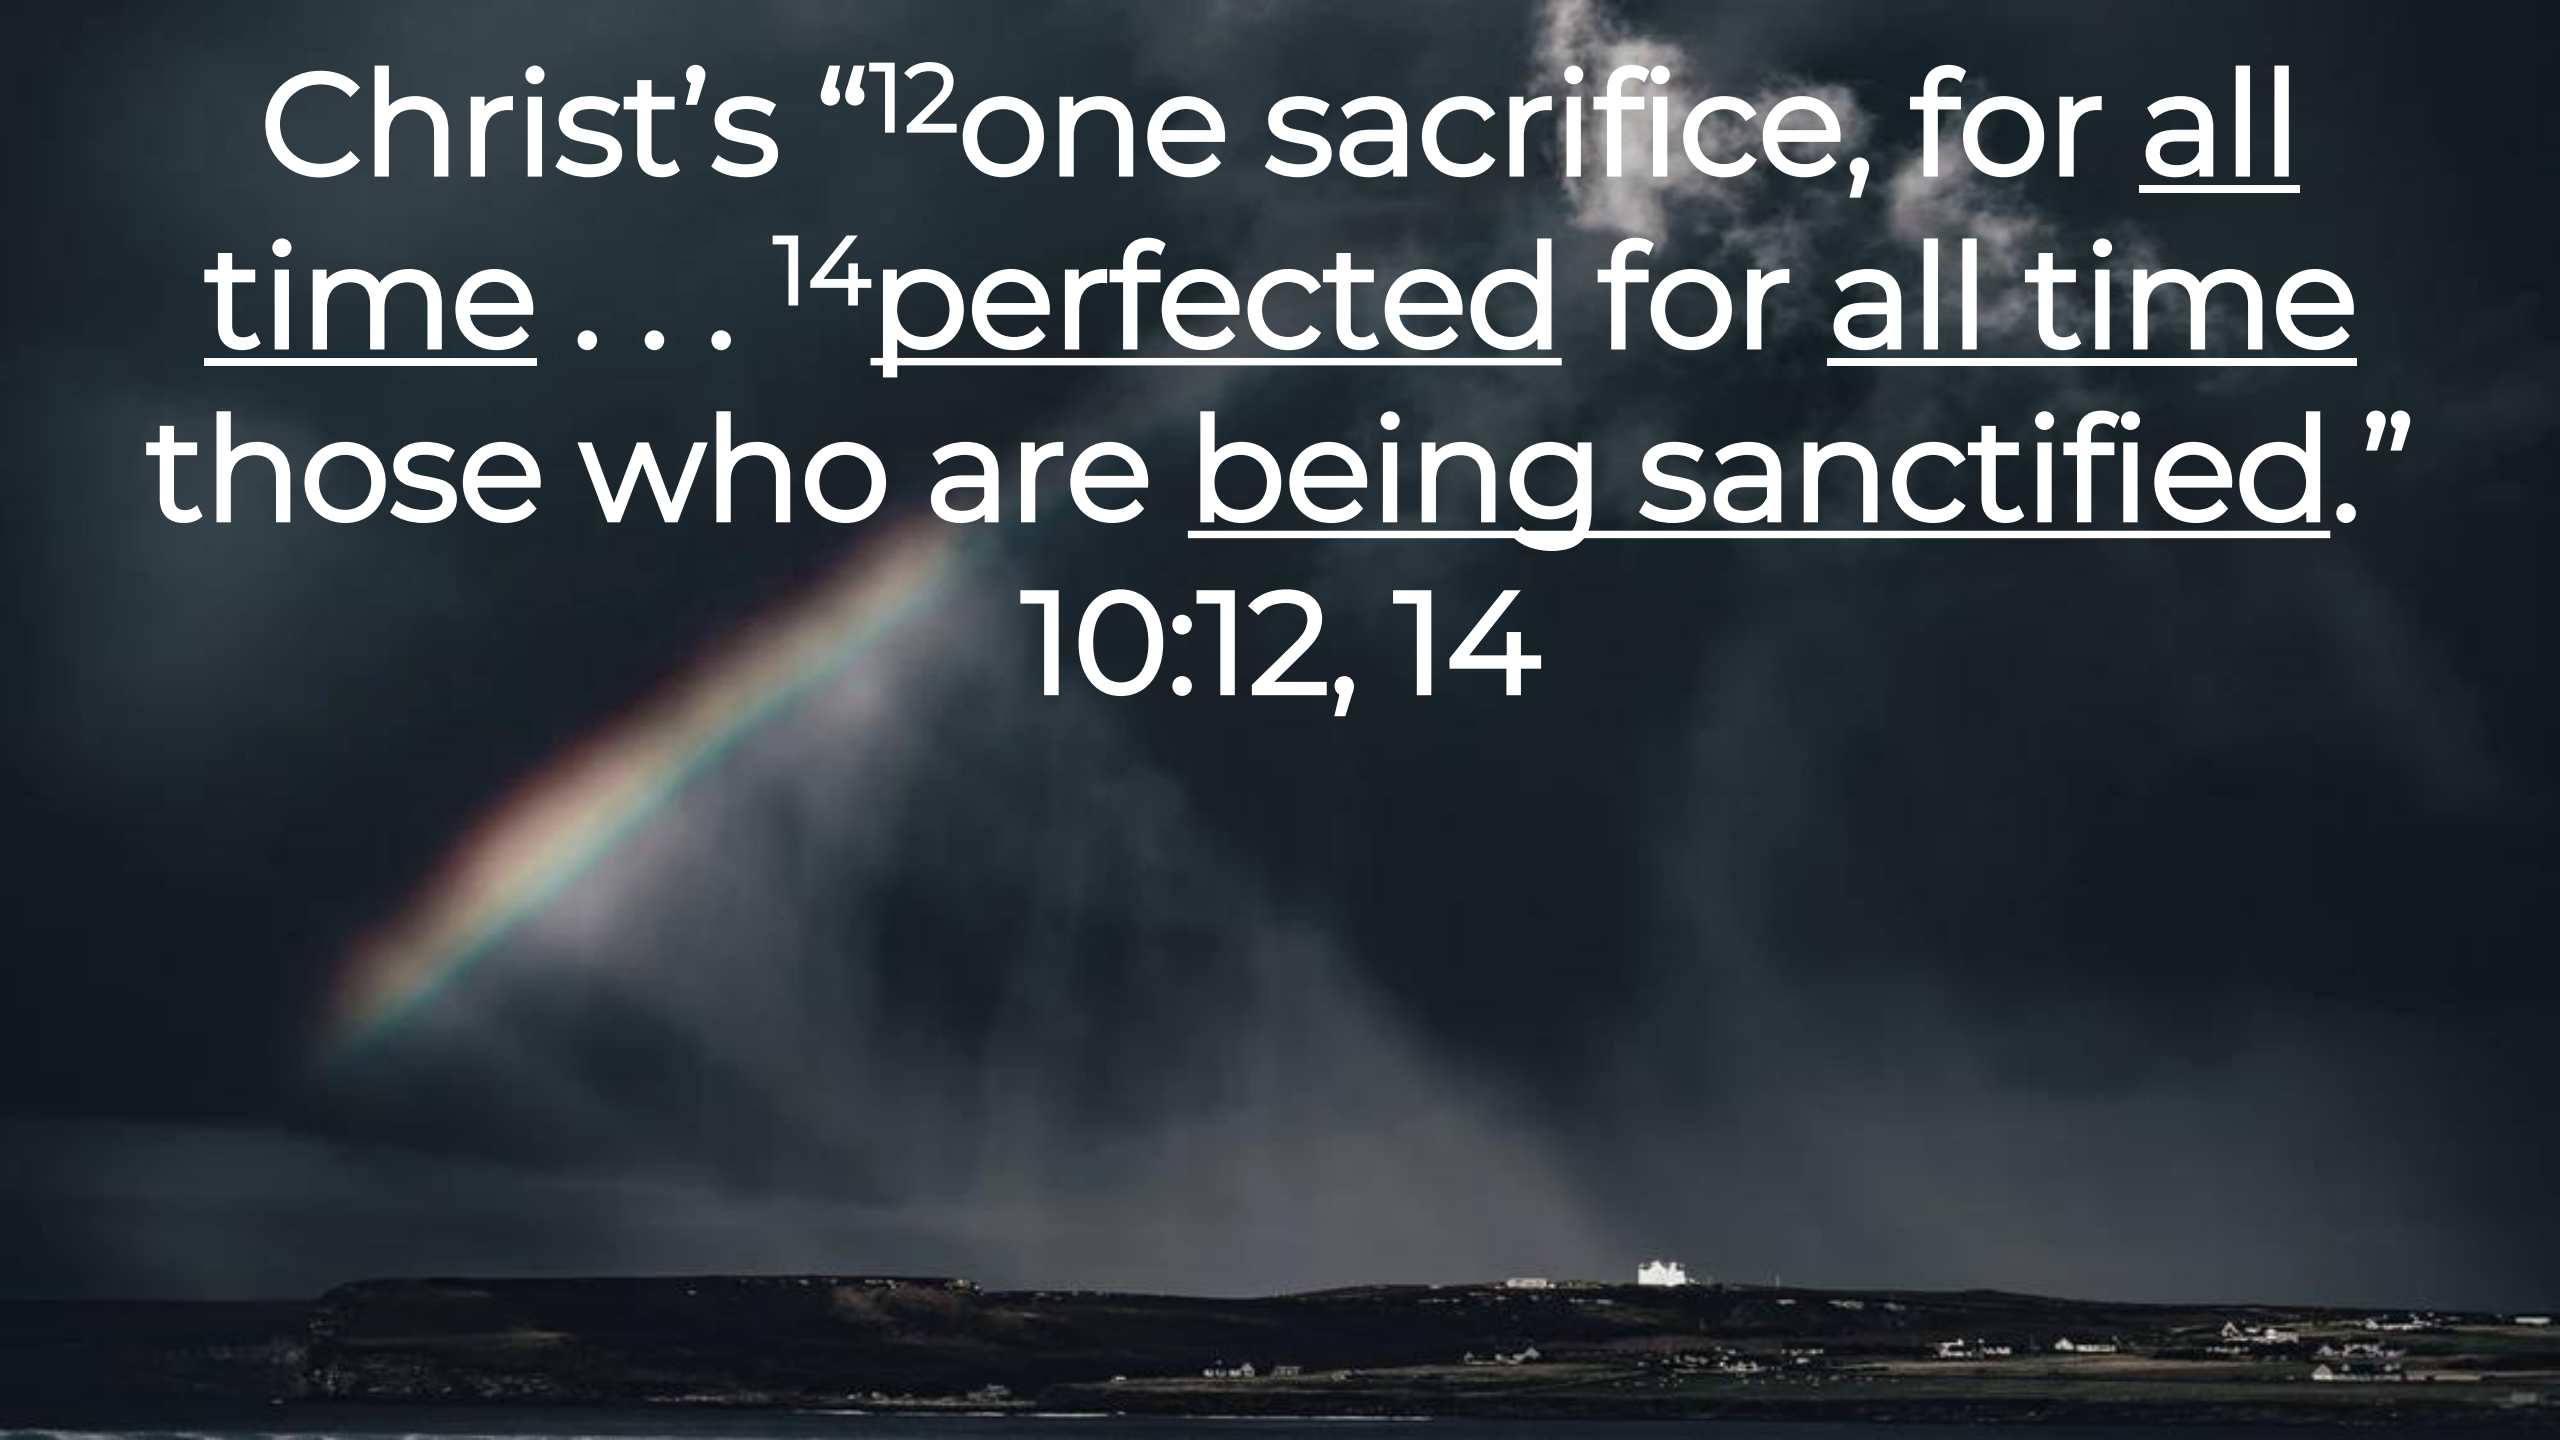

A dramatic landscape with a dark, stormy sky filled with heavy, grey clouds. The sun is breaking through the clouds, creating a bright, glowing effect. Below the sky is a field of tall, green grass. The overall mood is one of intensity and awe.

Hebrews 10:5-10
Psalm 40, and 56 give us
Old Testament precedent – this was never the final solution!

It was never the life of an animal that God wanted, but our lives.

1 Sam.15:22; Hosea 6:6; Prov. 21:3

A dramatic landscape featuring a vibrant rainbow arching across a dark, stormy sky. In the foreground, a small town or village is visible, with a prominent white building illuminated against the dark background. The overall scene conveys a sense of hope and divine presence amidst a dark environment.

Christ's “<sup>12</sup>one sacrifice, for all time . . . <sup>14</sup>perfected for all time those who are being sanctified.”

10:12, 14

So what do we do with this?

So what do we do with this?

We do what we couldn't do before

“The Law . . . can never . . . make perfect those who draw near.”

Hebrews 10:1

So what do we do with this?
We do what we couldn't do before

1. “draw near” “confidently”
“in full assurance of faith” 19-22

So what do we do with this?

We do what we couldn't do before

2. "hold fast ...without wavering" 23

So what do we do with this?
We do what we couldn't do before

3. Inspire each other to love and good deeds. 24

A dark, stormy sky with a faint rainbow and a distant town on a hill.

So what do we do with this?
We do what we couldn't do before

4. Don't forsake assembling,
instead encourage each
other more than ever. 25

A misty forest landscape with dense evergreen trees. The scene is hazy, with a soft, greyish-white mist or fog filling the air, partially obscuring the background. The foreground shows the dark green, detailed branches of a pine tree. The overall mood is serene and quiet.
